

KINGSGATE NAMED FINALIST FOR THE CINCINNATI BUSINESS COURIER'S 2019 BEST PLACES TO WORK AWARDS

October 21, 2019

Cincinnati, OH – Last week, Kingsgate Logistics was named a finalist for the Cincinnati Business Courier’s 2019 Best Places to Work awards. This is the fourth year in a row Kingsgate has been nominated for this award that honors businesses who are leaders in employee engagement.

Kingsgate fosters an environment where employees look forward to coming to work each day in what can at times be a difficult industry. The company strives to make both employees and customers feel like family. Kingsgate founders Merry and Tom Beckham knew the importance of honesty, integrity and transparency in the logistics industry, values that are still ingrained in the company culture to this day.

“In over 30 years of business, Kingsgate has been tireless in constantly growing and improving for our employees. We have an incredible team that works together to create a special culture to work in and that support each other day in and day out,” said Jeff Beckham, Owing Partner. “This is what makes Kingsgate a great place to work.”

Kingsgate is proud to have been named a finalist and would like to thank our employees who are the sole reason we received this honor, as well as extend our congratulations to all businesses honored at this year’s awards ceremony.
